2. Attainment 2018 (Based on Y6 results)
Harbertonford's figures for pupils eligible for PP (outcomes are based on teacher assessment as there were no SATs tests in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic)		Pupils not eligible for PP (national average)
% achieving expectations in reading	100% (3/3 pupils)	No data due to COVID-19 pandemic
% achieving expectation in writing	66.6% (2/3 pupils)	No data due to COVID-19 pandemic
% achieving expectation in maths	66.6% (2/3 pupils)	No data due to COVID-19 pandemic

3. Barriers to future attainment (for pupils eligible for PP, including high ability)
In-school barriers (issues to be addressed in school, such as poor oral language skills)
A.	Some pupil premium children are achieving below the national average in writing
B.	Some pupil premium children's progress will have been impacted by the school closures linked to the COVID-19 pandemic
External barriers (issues which also require action outside school, such as low attendance rates)
C.	Some pupil premium pupils (and pupils with parents in the services) have SEMH needs which can impact on their progress and the capacity to support learning at home.
D.	Some pupil premium pupils have not had a wide exposure to rich and varied language which can impact on their progress, particularly in reading and writing.

4. Desired outcomes
	Desired outcomes and how they will be measured	Success criteria
A.	Pupils eligible for PP to be achieving in line with national average in Writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pupils eligible for PP to attain EXS in line with non-eligible peers in maths across the school The progress of eligible pupils in maths is at least in line with National at the end of KS2

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pupils identified as prior higher attaining are identified and targeted for GDS • Eligible pupils to achieve RWM combined at least in line with Nationals • Lead indicators are monitored and acted upon weekly
B.	Pupil premium children will make good progress following school closures linked to the COVID-19 pandemic	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pupils will access a recovery curriculum • Additional provision will be accessed via Quality First Teaching • Pupils will receive targeted intervention/small group support linked to specific needs • Early intervention is in place for pupils on SEND register and those making slow progress.
C.	Pupils eligible for PP have access to SEMH support through the Inclusion Hub	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pupils will be identified through Boxall profiling who need SEMH support. • Pupils will access the Link Academy Inclusion Hub, Early help, Play Therapy, SEMH interventions e.g. Lego therapy, Therapeutic Play etc • Additional booster groups will be available for selected children to support reading and writing progress.
D.	Pupil premium children will extend and develop their oral vocabulary across the breadth of the curriculum.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The oracy approach, through training with the Plymouth Oracy Hub, will be developed and implemented throughout the school. • Pupils will take part in planned oral work aimed at introducing and developing a wider vocabulary. • The impact of the project will be seen in a wider use and understanding of vocabulary in both read and written work.

5. Planned expenditure

The three headings below enable schools to demonstrate how they are using the pupil premium to improve classroom pedagogy, provide targeted support and support whole school strategies.

i. Quality of teaching for all

Desired outcome	Chosen action / approach	What is the evidence and rationale for this choice?	How will you ensure it is implemented well?	Staff lead	When will you review implementation?
Improved attainment in writing at the end of KS2	Hubs; Middle leaders will engage with the Trust-wide network to ensure the highest quality delivery of a broad and balanced curriculum. All staff to focus on 'Implement/Intent and Impact'.	Ofsted's new inspection framework will place an increased emphasis on curriculum as part of a new quality of education grade, which will also look at teaching and learning and outcomes for pupils. The inspectorate has said that it will assess curriculum through intent, implementation and impact. Ms Fearn - Ofsted said: "Intent is about what leaders intend pupils to learn. It's as simple as that. Intent is everything up to the point at which teaching happens." She said that, according to Ofsted's new framework, "good intent" has the following four features: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a curriculum that is ambitious for all pupils; a curriculum that is coherently planned and sequenced; a curriculum that is successfully adapted, designed and developed for pupils with special educational needs and/or disabilities; a curriculum that is broad and balanced for all pupils. Ms Fearn said that, in order to assess intent, inspectors will "consider the curriculum leadership provided by senior, subject and curriculum leaders".	All staff to have a greater understanding of the position of each subjects current focus, good practice and shared resources. All staff to feel supported in middle leadership roles (strategic and school based) with a focus on accountability (curriculum, books and data position). Lesson observations to look at challenge/impact. Pupil progress meetings identify target children forensically. Book monitoring to dig deeper into how effective the teacher/pupil 'response' to the work has been ie- has it improved the child's progress?	Teaching staff and senior leadership Subject Leaders	Termly
